1st – Scotland 14 points; 2nd – England 14 points; 3rd – Wales 7 points; 4th – Ireland 5 points
Scotland regained the overall Home Nations Championships title from holders England at Scotstoun, Glasgow by the narrowest of margins. Having each won two age group titles, Scotland and England were tied on 14 points each. Scotland however had won 67% of rubbers played to England's 65%. The Scots last won the title in Belfast in 2007. Scotland won the senior title following an excellent 5-1 final day win over Wales. This followed 4-2 victories over both England and Ireland. The 12 & Under title also was won by Scotland with three convincing wins. England won both other age groups – 14 and 18 & Under – with Scotland runners-up in both.
