

LICENSED COACH BENEFITS

Now that you are a fully qualified coach you can apply for a LTA Coach Licence.

The over-riding benefit of the Coach Licence is the guarantee for anyone looking to employ a coach that you have met specific requirements in your area of expertise.

Here are some of the other fantastic benefits Licensed Coaches receive:

Civil Liability Insurance - £60,000,000 worldwide

Civil Liability Insurance is a must have policy for all coaches working on their own. Civil Liability protects you if you are sued by someone who has been injured and claims that it is a result of your negligence.

Employer's Liability Insurance - £10,000,000

Employer's Liability Insurance is a legal requirement for those who employ other coaches or assistants. Employer's Liability protects you if an assistant coach, for example, is injured whilst working for you and holds you responsible for their injury.

Personal Accident Cover including Income Protection

Personal Accident Insurance offers an immediate lump sum payment in the event of a fatal accident or accident leading to a permanent total disablement. In addition, Licensed Coaches have Income Protection. If you are injured and cannot work, you can claim up to £500 per week for up to a year.

Physiocare Protection

Even a minor injury could prevent you from coaching for a period of time. Physiocare Protection entitles you to an initial consultation followed by up to 4 treatment sessions. This is available for up to 4 separate, non-related musculoskeletal injuries.

Free Legal Advice

Licensed coaches can access free legal advice on issues including tax returns, VAT and employment issues.

Licensed Coach Nike Clothing

Licensed Coaches can access clothing from the 2011 Nike range.

Car Leasing Offers

Licensed coaches can access preferential leasing rates with Peugeot and BMW.
