

PARKSTEAD HOUSE

How to find us....

Parkstead House is situated in the grounds of Whitelands College, Roehampton University – just off Holybourne Avenue. Please follow the blue university signs into the college grounds. The reception area is straight ahead of you as you enter the driveway. All visitors should report to reception upon arrival.

By Car

Parkstead House is situated just off the A306, Roehampton Lane, between the A3 and the A205 South Circular (Upper Richmond Road).

From the A205 South Circular, turn into Roehampton Lane, drive past St Mary's Hospital on your left. At the major crossroads with traffic lights turn right onto Danebury Avenue, take the first left onto Holybourne Avenue and Parkstead House is on the right after Laverstoke Gardens.

From the A3, turn into the A306 Roehampton Lane. After approximately 0.5 miles at the major crossroads with traffic lights, turn left into Danebury Avenue. Take the first left onto Holybourne Avenue and Parkstead House is the second turning on the right after Laverstoke Gardens.

Follow the blue university signs into the grounds and bear right into the visitors car-park. Visitors should park in one of the Parkstead House parking spaces at the far end of the Visitors car park and then report to reception.
