1. Chair's welcome

The Chair of Tennis Scotland, Mr Graham Watson, welcomed those attending the Annual General Meeting of Tennis Scotland. The Company Secretary announced that there had been a total of 34 proxies received by the deadline of 16 April 2024. These proxies more than fulfilled the quorum for the business proper of the AGM to be conducted. There was also a total of 4 voting cards in the room and hence a total of 38 votes for the 2023 AGM resolutions.

2. Apologies for absence

Formal apologies for absence had been received from 11 members.

3. Approval of 2022 AGM minutes dated 20 April 2023

The Chair requested that the minutes of the Tennis Scotland Annual General Meeting dated 20 April 2023 (which had been previously circulated with the notice calling the meeting) be approved. The minutes were duly approved with no amendments noted.

4. To receive the report of the Chair

The Chair, Mr Graham Watson presented his report to the meeting;

GW noted his pleasure on behalf of the Board regarding the continued development and growth in members with both adult and child memberships increasing over the year. Statistics from across the UK show Tennis Scotland favourably represented. GW extended his thanks for all the efforts from volunteers, members, partners, the CEO and Team of Tennis Scotland for this outcome.

GW noted his delight at the opening of the Oriam Indoor Tennis Facility in Edinburgh funded through the TSIT fund and thanks to the Tennis Scotland Board for contributions and getting the project over the line.

GW noted the financial results for the year to December 2023 were solid and Tennis Scotland continue to manage reserves and also of note to increased income levels with note of thanks to the LTA and Sportscotland for ongoing support. Of note are the good working practices allowing for building of confidence with LTA/SS. Going forward there will be a new Scottish Performance Pathway which CEO Blane Dodds will cover later in the AGM.

GW noted the challenging environment but believes Tennis Scotland have a very good platform going forward. The Annual Report refers to the great achievements and evidence of success of Tennis Scotland in the last year.

GW noted the commitment of the Board of Directors and their cohesion and extended a note of thanks to the Board and all in attendance at the AGM for their continued support.

GW handed over to CEO Blane Dodds to present the annual report and accounts.
