It's hard for us to reach the parents of junior players

Parents sometimes need timely advice

Awareness of Safeguarding should be a constant conversation

Enquiries are often about code of conduct not safeguarding

Parents can help to keep tennis safe for everyone

How Do You Support Safeguarding?

We represent an engaged relevant audience for this topic

We raise the topic of safeguarding regularly on the group

We connect parents together to help & support each other

We provide a space where parents can ask advice, share experiences, & explore ideas 24/7
