NATIONAL SCHOOLS

WE WANT EVERY CHILD IN SCOTLAND TO HAVE THE CHANCE TO TRY TENNIS

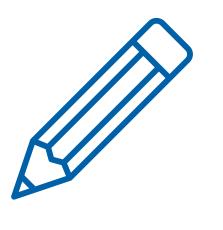

LTA YOUTH SCHOOLS PRIMARY & SECONDARY TEACHER TRAINING

Completing free online LTA Youth Schools training enables teachers to deliver tennis as part of PE lessons. On completion of the course, schools also receive a tennis equipment pack or £250 voucher to redeem on sessions delivered by a local coach.

TENNIS LEADER

Designed to develop leadership skills both on and off the court, Tennis Leaders training is a free programme for young people, aged 11–18 years old, with all levels of tennis abilities.

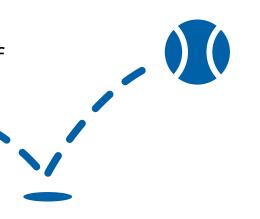

Upon completion of the course, students earn a certificate for each module completed and a workbook for reference.

SCHOOL SKILLS FESTIVAL

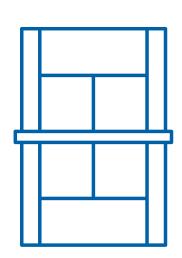

Skills festivals are mass participation events which include young pupils of all ages in tennis through fun and engaging activities with other schools at leisure centres, parks or local tennis venues.

Tennis Scotland provides support to deliver events alongside partners such as local authorities and Active Schools.

LINKS WITH LOCAL CLUBS & COACHES

Support is available from Tennis Scotland to develop links between schools and local clubs in the community. These links will create a strong pathway from tennis activity in schools to a local tennis club or coaching programme which will progress each young person's tennis journey.

OPEN COURT

WHAT IS OPEN COURT?

Open Court provides disability-specific sessions for tennis and padel – including adaptations for learning disability, wheelchair, visually impaired and deaf players.

It supports people in clubs, parks, community and education as well as everyone else involved in tennis and padel, including coaches with a similar interest and who share our vision to open tennis up to people from all backgrounds.

A package of equipment and support enables venues to increase opportunities for disabled players.

THIS INCLUDES:

- Provision of an adaptive equipment bag with rackets, balls, net and range of equipment (worth £350) to help make sessions flexible and fun.
- Funding support to cover start-up costs and get your activities up and running so that you have time to make them sustainable in the long term.
- Disability awareness/activator training is provided for your coaches, volunteers and venue staff.

YOUR COMMITMENT

To be part of our Open Court Programme your organisation or venue needs to commit to the following for 12 months (ideally Jan – Dec):

- Engage with your local and regional disability groups and organisations to promote your offer and attract participants to your venue.
- Deliver high-quality, disability specific tennis sessions on a weekly and/or monthly basis.
- Engage participants specifically people who have a learning disability, a physical disability or a mental health problem and are in the under 35, BAME and women and girls' groups.
- Complete the required monitoring and evaluation survey twice per year

OTHER INITIATIVES

'SHE RALLIES' INITIATIVE

We're committed to delivering impactful initiatives which ensure a more equitable future for women & girls in tennis & padel.

Our focus is on three key themes:

Visibility – continue to improve the profile of women's tennis and padel, on and off the court, including in leadership roles, ensuring women are valued and celebrated across all levels of the game.

Participation - continue to reduce the gender gap across all frequencies of play for adults and juniors.

Workforce - inspire and enable a growing workforce of women, and educate allies, to empower women in all roles across our sport.

of junior players aged 4-15 are female

SHE RALLIES AMBITION

To continue to lead the way for women and girls in sport, and for tennis and padel to become truly gender-balanced sports in every respect

TENNIS 4 RACE AGAINST DEMENTIA

Tennis 4 RAD is a not-for-profit initiative which aims to increase access to tennis for people aged 50 and over.

Our inclusive programme promotes tennis as one of the best activities to support and improve healthy cognitive ageing – while also supporting Sir Jackie Stewart's Race Against Dementia charity.

RALLY ALLIES

The Rally Allies programme, delivered by Pride in Tennis, offers venues education to help develop more inclusive environments for LGBTQ+ people.

By educating on issues such as the barriers to sport for LGBTQ+ people and how to be an LGBTQ+ ally, the initiative encourages more venues to take positive action to be visibly LGBTQ+ inclusive, such as through hosting their own Pride Days.
