

LTA COMPETITION REGULATIONS

Effective from 1st September 2016

Amendment to Appendix Seven – Code Violation Points

At all tournaments which start on, or after, 1 January 2018 it will only be possible to challenge code violation points in cases of mistaken identity or if a player is issued with an immediate default.

Appendix Seven of the LTA Competition Regulations shall be amended as set out below and such changes will come into effect for all tournaments starting on, or after, 1 January 2018.

1. Paragraph 3 shall be deleted and replaced with the following:

“3. A Player may only challenge the imposition of Code Violation Points:

- (a) where the Code Violation was a result of the Player having been wrongly identified as the offending Player ('mistaken identity'); and/or
- (b) where the Player is challenging Code Violation Points received as a result of an immediate default.

2. A new paragraph 4 shall be inserted as set out below:

“4. For the avoidance of doubt a Player may not challenge Code Violations Points other than as set out in paragraph 3 above.”

3. Following this change points 4 -11 of Appendix Seven become points 5 -12 and all references to such paragraphs shall be amended accordingly.
