Underpinning any successful Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends open day is a good plan. The more time you allow yourself to create a plan and deliver it, the more likely your open day will be a success. To help you with your planning we have created a generic Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends Action Plan:

1) CHOOSING YOUR DATES
You can run your Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekend open day throughout the year, but it’s worth noting that we select three Big Weekends that we focus our national marketing and promotional efforts on, and so aligning your open day with these dates can help to increase the awareness of your event. The national Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends are:
- 18th & 19th May 2019,
- 20th & 21st July 2019
- 28th & 29th September 2019

When selecting your dates, make sure you allow sufficient lead-in time to prepare and promote your open day. We would normally suggest at least 4 to 6 weeks to fully plan and prepare your Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekend event to ensure that you get the most out of it.

Be aware that in order to receive the free Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends promotional resource packs you need to have registered and published your open day on ClubSpark by the specified deadlines that are listed and explained here: Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends Resources Packs

2) RECRUIT YOUR DELIVERY TEAM
Have a think of the different roles and responsibilities that need to be carried out not only on the day, but also in the preparation leading up to the event and identify who from the club can support. One of the biggest sources of frustration from participants attending a Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends event is that there are not enough people on-hand from the club to organise the day. Ask volunteers from the club early, and also explain what you would like them to do.

3) MAXIMISE YOUR IMPACT BY DELIVERING A TENNIS FOR KIDS COURSE TOO
Many venues have had significant success in linking their NVBTW events with delivering a Tennis for Kids coaching course. TFK acts as a perfect follow-on offer for children to keep them playing at your venue following a Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends event. Find out more about how you can link these two excellent LTA programmes together here:

4) PLAN A SCHEDULE OF ACTIVITIES
Early on in the planning phase take time to consider the different activities that you will run during the open day, particularly the on-court sessions. List these sessions on your ClubSpark event page so that attendees can book onto the sessions, which will make it easier for you to coordinate on the day.

When planning your on-court activities, consider who is likely to attend and plan your sessions accordingly:
- Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends typically tends to attract young families, beginners and returning players who have not played for some time, so having some balls and spare rackets to lend players is handy.
- If you are running mini-tennis sessions consider delivering a Cardio Tennis or Tennis Xpress session simultaneously to encourage mum or dad to play.
- Most importantly be flexible, as on the day you are likely to have people who turn up without booking and others who want to stay for longer. You want to try and ensure that they all have a great experience.
- And don’t forget the off-court activities: the BBQ, the bar, some refreshments can all be an extra source of revenue for your club.
Once you have planned your Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends open day the next step is to ensure that you promote it as widely as possible within the local community. We provide venues with a free promotional resource pack to equip you with materials to use in promoting your open day, this will include:

- Personalised Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends posters
- Personalised Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends postcards
- Personalised Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends banner

My Tennis Toolkit provides further free digital Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends resources that you can use on your website and social media platforms, as well as the opportunity to purchase and customise additional hard-copy promotional materials.

USING YOUR PROMOTIONAL RESOURCES

When using your hard-copy promotional materials, make sure you strategically place them where your target audience is likely to see them:

- Utilise any partnerships you may have such as with local businesses, community organisations, schools and the local authority
- Place your banner alongside a busy road or location that gets heavy footfall
- Tap in to the networks and social circles of your club members

FACEBOOK ADVERTISING

A number of tennis clubs have run highly effective Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends promotional campaigns solely through Facebook. Facebook Advertising allows clubs to promote their Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends open days through a very targeted and localised approach that can be extremely successful in reaching the club’s target audience. This approach is relatively straightforward, requires minimal effort from the club and is highly cost-effective.

Clubs can determine how much they wish to spend on their Facebook Advertising campaign, but as a guide spending anywhere from £25 to £100 can lead to thousands of local people seeing your promotion. We have produced some guidance tutorials to help venues understand and get the maximum output from a Facebook Advertising campaign:

Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends Open Day

One of the biggest challenges in running your Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekend open day is converting the attendees into regular participants at the club. And whilst on average 44% of attendees join the club as a member and 43% sign up to the coaching programme, these figures can be significantly improved if the venue offers an attractive and appealing follow-on offer.

One of the most common reasons for Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends attendees not joining the venue is that they can be put off by committing to a long-term membership before they’ve really decided if playing at the club is something that they are likely to stick with. Short term memberships or coaching programmes, such as Tennis for Kids, that lead into membership deals can be a good way to integrate new members into your club.

We have conducted research into the types of follow-on offers that appeal to Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends attendees, and these are listed below:

- SHORT-TERM MEMBERSHIP OFFERS
  Offering six or eight week memberships to the venue provides an appealing trial membership where the participant can decide if it is something that they are likely to commit to on a longer term basis, as well as providing additional revenue to the venue.

- DISCOUNTS ON THE ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP
  This is often a popular follow-on offer for tennis clubs, but our research into Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends attendees suggests that as a minimum the discount needs to be at least 20% off for it to be appealing. It is worth remembering that this still requires a long-term commitment from the participant, which is often a put-off. This follow-on offer therefore often works best alongside one of the other shorter-term offers.

- DISCOUNTS ON THE COACHING PROGRAMME
  Similar to the annual membership discounts, 20% is the minimum discount that appeals to Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends attendees. Joining the coaching programme can often be a good route for helping new members integrate into the club and meet new people, as well as feeling more confident about their tennis abilities.

- PAY & PLAY OPPORTUNITIES
  Nature Valley Big Tennis Weekends attendees regularly state pay & play as their preferred next step for continuing to play tennis. This provides a no-pressure and no-commitment route for these new participants to continue to experience the venue whilst also generating additional income for the venue. Pay & play can be managed through ClubSpark and doesn’t need to be available all of the time, the club can determine the times it wishes to offer pay & play. This approach can be effective in leading to new participants joining as members further down the line.
